Let's Start!

Let's review

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Are you comfortable talking on the phone to a stranger?
- Are you able to talk about experiences you've had?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about people's daily routines and habits.
- I can say what people are doing now or in the future.
- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.

Let's Explore!

Tracy is all talk ... on the phone.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Hello Tracy? What's up?
- Tracy: Hey Peter! I'm quickly eating breakfast. I'm going to get some groceries later on.
- Peter: Well, feel like grabbing a coffee later tonight? I've discovered a cozy little cafe on my street. I thought we should check it out.
- Tracy: Sounds alluring! Have you seen inside?
- Peter: Yes, it looks really cool.
- Tracy: What are you doing now?
- Peter: I'm reading the paper like I consistently do every morning, then after that I will grab a quick shower.
- Tracy: It's like you're superstitious, the same morning routine everyday!
- Peter: Funny you say that. I always read the paper and have my morning coffee in the exactly same way every day. Later today, I have to fix something on my computer. I'm taking my laptop into a repair shop this afternoon. The appointment is at 4:00.
- Tracy: What's wrong?
- Peter: I'm not sure. I've been having problems with my internet connection. I need someone to help me figure it out.
- Tracy: Well it won't be me! Good luck with that!

Let's Practice!

Peter and Sally talk about their daily routines and habits.

Instructions: Read the dialogue again. Write the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences. Practice saying the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Learning Points

The Present Perfect and the Simple Past Tense

1. We use the Present Perfect for actions which started in the past and are still happening now OR for finished actions which have a connection to the present.
2. We use the Simple Past for past events or actions which have no connection to the present.

Rule	Example	Explanation
You use the Present Perfect when the time period has NOT finished.	I've been having problems with my internet connection.	The time period goes up to the present.
You use the Simple Past when the time period HAS finished.	I found this cozy little cafe last night when I was out for my nightly walk.	Last night has finished.

Talking About Future Actions

You can use four different tenses to talk about the future.

- When you talk about things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.
- When you ask about intentions, you use going to.
- When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense.
- When you talk about schedules or timetables in the future, you use the Simple Present tense.

Verb Tense	Example
Will	After that, I will grab a quick shower.
Going to	I'm going to get some groceries this afternoon.
Present Continuous	The appointment is at 4:00.
Simple Present tense	The dinner is at 7 tonight.
