Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: Bright Lights, Big City. You ought to visit!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Where do you work, study or live? What does it look like?
- What do you prefer, old or modern architecture?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the sound gl.
- I can say what people have to do or are going to do in the future.
- I can use formal and informal language.

Let's Explore!

Listen to Jesse and Samantha chat about their plans. They use both formal and informal language.

* "Informal language" includes reduced forms like hafta and outta.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Jesse: Which building do you work in exactly?
Samantha: The tall one over there with the glass front- the one glimmering in the sunlight with the modern exterior.
Jesse: Nice. This location is much better than the one in Midtown.
Samantha: Yes, the restaurants are much better too. By the way, there's a new rooftop terrace restaurant opening in that building. It supposedly has the best views in the city and a renowned chef from London.
Jesse: We ought to check it out.
Samantha: We should.
Jesse: Are you busy next Saturday? I can make reservations for say ... 8 PM? Do you wanna go?
Samantha: Sounds good but you will have to book soon. I'm sure it will be popular. Jenny and I are going to a street fair near City Hall in the afternoon. There's going to be live bands and giveaways.
Jesse: Nice. Maybe I can meet you two there and then we can head to dinner after?
Samantha: Great idea! I've gotta pick up my new glasses too. Jenny says they look glamorous.
Jesse: You hafta wear them at dinner. So you can look fabulous and enjoy the city skyline at the same time.

Let's Practice!

What are Jesse and Samantha planning to do?

Instructions: Choose the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences. Practice saying the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Learning Points

Consonant Clusters GL- Sound

Consonant clusters like gl can occur at the beginning of a word in English.

Practice blending the sound from one consonant sound into the next without adding a vowel sound in between.

Look at the chart below.

glue	glum	glee	glass	glow
glove	glitch	gleen	glamor	gloat

Examples:

- The building over there, with the glass front.

Reduced forms

You use reduced forms in speaking, not in writing.

See the table below for examples.

Formal	Reduced Form
ought to	otta
want to	wanna
have to	hafta
got to	gotta
going to	gonna
going to	goin'ta

Examples:

- Do you wanna go?
