

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

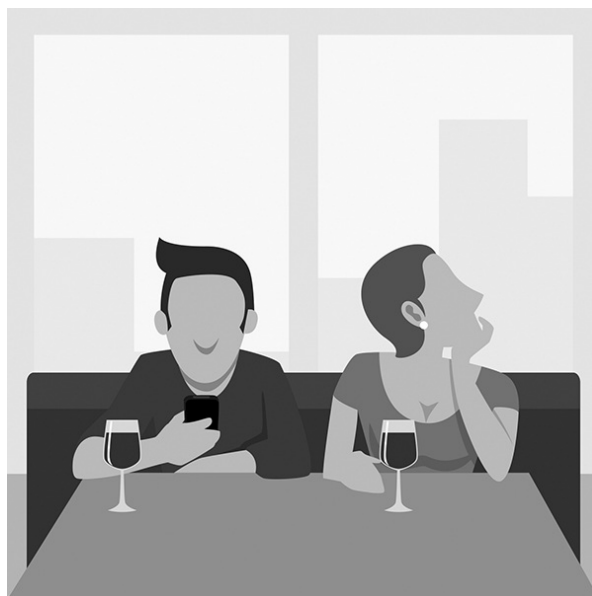

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's a blind date!

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- What personality traits do you have?
- How do you do things in life? Quickly? Slowly? Eagerly?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about people's appearance and personality.
- I can say what people are doing in the future.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Peter is involved in a mix up

* A "mix up" is when you expect one thing and something else happens.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Vanessa: Hey Peter. How was the blind date with Tracy?

Peter: It's funny you should ask!

Vanessa: Oh?

Peter: So, I'm at the coffee shop. Tracy is coming to meet me in about 10 minutes. I'm thinking, maybe I'll get a good table. I'll get a good table.

Vanessa: Uh huh.

Peter: A tall willowy woman walks in and slowly saunters over. She introduces herself formally. She's quite alluring. She's engaging. I'm very happy. She thinks I'm witty.

Vanessa: Nice!

Peter: She says she's going to go to the ladies. She'll be back in a jiff. I'm waiting patiently. The movie starts at 9 so there's lots of time. We're not leaving for another half hour.

Vanessa: Yes?

Peter: Then, another girl comes in. She's quite distinctive. She walks over confidently and says she's going to introduce herself. She's Tracy.

Vanessa: Another Tracy?

Peter: Yes. I'm looking at her questioningly. I'm perplexed. Then she mentions Frank.

Vanessa: Gosh!

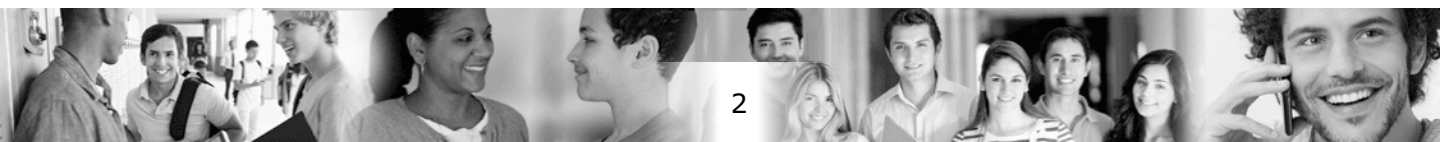

Peter: The first Tracy comes back. They know each other!

Vanessa: Really?

Peter: Turns out her blind date is sitting two tables over.

Vanessa: No way.

Peter: It was an interesting evening.

Let's Practice!

What was Tracy like?

Instructions: Find the words in the word search below.

Words

1. Witty
2. Confidently
3. Questioningly
4. Engaging
5. Patiently
6. Alluring
7. Formally
8. Willowy

Let's Practice!

What do Peter and Tracy intend to do?

Instructions: Read the paragraph. Underline all the sentences that talk about people's intentions. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

Tracy is coming to meet me in about 10 minutes. She's going to introduce herself. I'm thinking, maybe I'll get a good table. She says she's going to go to the ladies. The movie starts at 9 so there's lots of time. We're not going to leave for another half hour.

Extension Activity

Write about a mix-up in your life!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Think about a time in your life when you or someone you know had a mix-up.
- Write a description of the mix-up in 100 words.
- Explain, where, when, and why it all happened.
- Explain how people behaved or did things.
- Read your story aloud.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I write about a mix-up.

☐
☐

I describe, where, when, and why it happened.

☐
☐

I say how people behaved or did things.

☐
☐

I read my story aloud.

☐
☐

Target Words

- perplexed (adjective): unable to understand or think clearly e.g. When Sarah didn't understand things, she was perplexed.
- patiently (adverb): to remain calm and relaxed under pressure e.g. Peter has been patiently waiting for friends for a while.
- engaging (adjective): very pleasing in a way that holds your attention e.g. Peter found his date to be very engaging.
- alluring (adjective): having a quality that attracts us to things or people
e.g. Peter said his date was very alluring.
- go to the ladies (expression): uses the ladies' washroom
e.g. She went to the ladies.
- to saunter (verb): to walk slowly
e.g. She sauntered over to the table.
- back in a jiff (expression): will return quickly
e.g. She'll be back in a jiff.
- it's funny you should ask (expression): what a coincidence
e.g. It's funny you should ask. I was just going to tell you that!
- witty (adjective): funny in an intelligent way
e.g. She thought I was witty.
- willowy (adjective): slender; with long arms and legs
e.g. She was tall and willowy.

Learning Points

Adverbs of Manner

You use adverbs of manner to describe how something is done.

Example: She strongly voiced her concerns.

How did she voice her concerns? Strongly.

Many adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective:

Examples: quick → quickly active → actively

Some adverbs are formed by adding -ally

Example: public → publicly

These adverbs can come after the direct object or after the verb if there isn't any direct object.

Examples:

- She's introduces herself formally.
- He's waiting patiently.
- She walked over confidently.
- I looked at her questioningly.

Learning Points

The Future

You can use different tenses to talk about the future.

When you talk about things that are not decided or when you make a decision at the moment of speaking for the future, you use the modal will.

With will you use words like perhaps, maybe and I think to show you are still not sure.

When you ask about intentions, you use going to. With going to you often use words like sometimes, soon and when I have time to show you intend to do this, but you do not have not set a specific time.

When you talk about things that are arranged, on the agenda or booked for the future, you use the Present Continuous tense. With the Present Continuous, you use specific times and dates to show this event is booked.

Many people use going to in place of the Present Continuous tense.

You use the Simple Present tense to talk about future schedules.

Will	I'll eat sit here!
Going to	We're all going to see a movie later.
Present Continuous	I'm meeting Tracy at the coffee shop.
Simple Present	The movie starts at 8 p.m.

Examples:

- Tracy is coming to meet me in about 10 minutes.
- I'm thinking, maybe I'll get a good table.
- She says she's going to go to the ladies.
- The movie starts at 9 so there's lots of time.

