Let's Start!

Getting to know someone well takes work.

Learning Outcome

Describe routines and regular activities in a wider range of social and work contexts.

Ask your partner:

- How do you describe what you look like?
- How do you describe your personality?
- Are you comfortable talking about your appearance and personality?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about people's appearance and personality.
- I can discuss experiences I've had or haven't had.
- I can talk about how something happens or how someone behaves.

Let's Explore!

Peter and his friend Doug talk about Peter's blind date!

* The word blind means you can't see. On a "blind date" you have never seen the person before.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Doug: Hey Peter, do you think you're ready to try the blind date thing again?
Peter: Well, I definitely found the experience a bit stressful last time.
Doug: You can say that again!
Peter: I was absolutely surprised. She didn't look like the photos she sent. She had a peculiar appearance.
Doug: It will be better this time.
Peter: I hope so. I have waited for a while to try dating again. This time I promise to act more enthusiastically!
Doug: It should be easy. She is very pretty and well-dressed. Is it fair to say the last time you dated you were inadequately prepared to meet the girl?
Peter: I guess you could say that. I really just want to know what she likes. You know, music, food, movies? I'll tell her about the experiences I've had at school, work and with the family. I won't tell her about sky-diving.
Doug: Peter! Those are the kinds of things to share with her! That's how you'll find out what she is like.

Let's Practice!

Learning Points

Present Perfect vs. The Simple Past Tense

1. We use the Present Perfect tense for actions which started in the past and are still happening now or for finished actions which have a connection to the present.
2. We use the Simple Past tense for past events or actions which have no connection to the present.

Rule	Example	Explanation
The Present Perfect is used when the time period has NOT finished.	I have waited a while to try dating again.	The time period goes up to the present.
The Simple Past is used when the time period HAS finished.	The experience was a bit stressful last time.	Last week has finished.

Examples:

- I have waited for a while to try dating again.
- I'll tell her about the experiences I've had.

Adverbs of Manner

You use adverbs of manner to describe how something is done.

Example: She strongly voiced her concerns.
How did she voice her concerns? Strongly.

Many adverbs are formed by adding -ly to an adjective definite → definitely absolute → absolutely

Some adverbs are formed by adding -ally enthusiastic → enthusiastically

These adverbs can come after the direct object or after the verb if there isn't any direct object.

Examples:

- This time I promise to act more enthusiastically!
- Is it fair to say the last time you dated you were inadequately prepared to meet the girl?
